MORTON LIBRARY OPEN TO THE PUBLIC – Opportunity Presented Daily for Visitors to Enter the Building

The Morton Library opened its doors this morning and until further notice will open each day at 3 P.M., closing at 8 o'clock in the evening. The Morton and Rutledge Aid Society to the Chester Hospital will use the Morton Library during the hours above stated, for their work for that institution – very plain garments ready to be sewed can be obtained from the committee. The ladies helping at present are: Misses Mary and Hattie Thomas, Mrs. H.B. Whittaker, Mrs. Harry Pourchot, Mrs. William M. Bishop, Miss Madaline Ecker, Springfield; Miss Edythe Carr, Springfield; Miss Elizabeth Fogg, Swarthmore; Mrs. W.R. Tyler, Mrs. W.E. Thompson, Mrs. Edward Harned, Secane, Mrs. M.E. DeBarger
