

July 2, 1896 – CHESTER TIMES

BOOTHWYN CAMP – The New Religious Resort Soon to Reverberate With Shouts of Praise – A Most Delightful Location – Beulah Park Supplied With Splendid Equipment and Able Speakers Have Been Secured to Enlighten the Seekers after Knowledge and Truth

Beulah Park, Boothwyn, Pa, the new religious resort, dedicated on Saturday last with impressive ceremonies will entertain from July 11-19, some of Delaware county's best citizens and a host of prominent ministers, class leaders and Gospel workers from the surrounding county.

The first service of the camp meeting will take place on Saturday afternoon, July 11, at 3:30 o'clock, when the little Jubilee Singers of Asheville, N.C. will give one of their splendid religious song services. These little girls are marvels of power and are travelling everywhere, captivating their audiences. AT seven o'clock the first religious service of the camp will be held.

Rev. B. F. Campbell pastor of Mt. Zion Church, will have charge of the camp meeting and aim to make things as pleasant and profitable as possible. Six services will be held each day: 8, 10:30 a. m., 2, 3:30, 7 and 9 p.m. On the two Lord's days early services will be conducted at 6 a.m.

Among the many who will take part in the various services of the camp meeting are: Rev. and Mrs. J. Smith of Prospect Park, Pa; Rev. T. M. Griffith, D. D., Thurlow, Pa.; Rev. Vincent Nichols, Chester, Pa.; Harry Young, South Chester, Pa.; Rev. J. B. Graw, D. D., Trenton, N.J.; Re. Chas. Jorgenson, Chester, Pa.; Rev. L. G. Jordan, D. D., Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. F. G. Bungley and wife, Boston, Mass.; Rev. George R. Tompkins, Upland Pa.; Rev. D. S. Sherry, Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. A. P. Hutchinson, Oxford, Pa.; Rev. C. W. Langley, Booth's Corner Pa.; Rev. R. Burjette Short, Wilmington Del.; Rev. L. Frank Haas, Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. W. H. Aspril, Upland Pa.; Rev. J. Wesley Miles, Chester, Pa.

Among others who will visit the camp meeting and help along the glorious work of the Master are the city pastors: Prof. A. S. Otley, Rev. Wm. H. Berry, Rev. J. D. Rigg, Rev. Wm. White, Rev. Henry Sanderson, Rev. John France, Rev. J. M. Williams, Rev. Asbury Burke, Rev. Wm. Shipley, Rev. B. F. Miller, Rev. J. W. Perkinpine and others.

CAMP NOTES

The prospects for a successful camp meeting are good and all who desire can have a part.

Tents can be rented for $3.50 for the entire season.

Rev. B. F. Campbell will be pleased to impart any information desired to all who are interested.

The location is delightful, the water pure and it will be a moonlight season.

The camp meeting will be conducted on the old fashioned line.

Those who attend will hear clean cut sermons by distinguished men.

The camp is a union camp and non-sectarian throughout.

Persons can get splendid board and lodging in the cottages nearby.

The tents are new and water tight.

Visitors can reach Boothwyn by train, stage or trolley.

There will be no respect of persons but all will be made comfortable.